

Summer 2008 Course List
African Studies Minor
 (Updated May 28th, 2008)

The below list contains courses offered at the University of Washington that can count towards the African Studies minor for the Summer Quarter, 2008. This minor is offered through the African Studies Program that is housed in the Henry M. Jackson School of International Studies. The African Studies Program coordinates and disseminates information about Africa-related events on campus; facilitates research, internships, and study abroad opportunities in Africa; and administers the undergraduate minor (see program website at <http://jsis.washington.edu/africa/>).

This course list includes courses for UW-Bothell and UW-Tacoma, which are listed following the UW-Seattle language courses. Summer term has an A-term that runs from June 23-July 23, 2008 and a B-term that runs from July 24-August 22, 2008. Courses could also run the full term from June 23-August 22, 2008. A or B term is indicated on the courses below; if no term is indicated, the course will run the full term.

To complete an African Studies minor, a student must take at least 30 credits of African Studies courses. Those courses must be spread across three or more disciplines/programs and 15 of the 30 credits must be at the 300-level or above, and at least 5 credits of coursework must be focused on the African Diaspora. For complete minor requirements, please see our website at <http://jsis.washington.edu/africa/admissions/minor.shtml>. If you would like to become an African Studies minor or have any questions about the minor, please contact the African Studies Program Assistant at 206.616.0998 or africa1@u.washington.edu.
