

University of Washington
Center for Global Studies and Canadian Studies Center
THE HENRY M. JACKSON SCHOOL OF INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

One of the Jackson School's most important programs for undergraduates is Task Force. Task Force is a remarkable class that allows international Studies students each year to grapple with "real world" policy questions on some of today's most important international issues. One of this year's most exciting Task Force courses allowed students to explore arctic Governance.

The Canada Arctic Governance Task Force provides education and research on a key Canada-U.S. foreign policy issue today – the Arctic. Faculty and students from the 2011 course will share program highlights including the transnational research trip to Ottawa. We hope to provide students from the University of Washington and Nunavik, Canada, with the opportunity to work together annually in an international forum and trip to Ottawa.

Arctic Governance Task Force Website: <http://jsis.washington.edu/canada/courses/arctic.shtml>

THE HENRY M. JACKSON SCHOOL OF INTERNATIONAL STUDIES
CORDIALLY INVITES ALUMNI AND FRIENDS TO THE

Canada Arctic Governance Task Force Program and Reception

Thursday, 5 May 2011

5:30 Program, The Theatre

6:30 Reception, Canada Room

CANADIAN EMBASSY · 501 Pennsylvania Ave NW · Washington, DC 20001

PLEASE JOIN

Reşat Kasaba, Director of the Henry M. Jackson School of International Studies;

Sara R. Curran, Chair, International Studies Program;

Nadine Fabbi and Vincent Gallucci, Task Force faculty;

Julie Gourley, U.S. Senior Arctic Official, Office of Ocean and Polar Affairs, U.S. Department of State;

Donat Savoie, Senior Advisor, Arctic and Circumpolar Affairs to Makivik Corporation;

Kelsey Barrett and Scott Halliday, student editors; and your former classmates and friends for a presentation on the program.

✿ HORS D'OEUVRES AND BEVERAGES ✿

RSVP no later than 18 April 2011 to Kelly Voss at kvoss@uw.edu · telephone (206) 543-0176