THE HAZEL D. COLE FELLOWSHIP IN JEWISH STUDIES 2010-2011

The Strom Jewish Studies Program at the University of Washington is welcoming applications for the Hazel D. Cole Fellowship in Jewish Studies for the academic year 2010-2011. The Fellowship may be used for either doctoral or post-doctoral (Ph.D. received within last three years) research in any field of Jewish Studies. Candidates must agree to be in residence at the University of Washington for the tenure of the fellowship. The Hazel D. Cole Fellow will receive a stipend of $30,000 plus benefits pending funding for the academic year and is expected to offer one public lecture and one undergraduate course during his or her tenure.

Applicants from all U.S. and foreign universities are welcome.

Applications should consist of:

- (1) A current curriculum vitae.
- (2) A description (not exceeding five pages) of the proposed research.
- (3) Three letters of recommendation. Letters with the original signature of the person making the recommendation may be sent via email as a PDF or as a WORD document with a scanned signature or mailed as a hard copy to the address below.

Finalists will be interviewed at the Association of Jewish Studies conference December 20-22, 2009 in Los Angeles, CA. Conference information may be found at: http://www.ajsnet.org/conf\_2009.html. Phone interviews may be conducted for finalists who are not able to attend the AJS conference. All applications including letters of recommendation should be received no later than 5:00 p.m. on Friday, October 30, 2009.

Application materials may be emailed to jewishst@uw.edu or mailed to:
