LANCE BERELOWITZ MCIP AA DIPL (LONDON)

Lance Berelowitz is a widely respected planner, urban designer and communicator. As Principal of URBAN FORUM ASSOCIATES, Lance has successfully managed numerous commissions for a broad range of clients in both the public and private sectors. His professional planning, public consultation and project management skills are in high demand, as are his skills as an accomplished communicator. He effectively develops and communicates visionary planning concepts and complex development projects to a variety of audiences. He was the editor-in-chief of Vancouver's successful 2010 Olympic Winter Games Bid Book.

Lance is an award-winning writer and commentator on urban planning issues. His work has been published nationally and internationally. His new book, Dream City: Vancouver and the Global Imagination, was published in April 2005.

Lance is a registered professional Planner, with membership in the Canadian Institute of Planners and the Planning Institute of British Columbia.
