

Canadian Studies Center
Henry M. Jackson School of International Studies

Canadian Studies Center
Annual Awards Reception

2009-2010

3:00 PM
Wednesday
9 June 2009

South Dining Room
University Club
University of Washington

Canadian Studies Center Annual Awards Reception

2009-2010 ACADEMIC YEAR
UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON CLUB, SEATTLE

Every year the Center celebrates the achievements of University of Washington graduate and under-graduate students who receive awards and recognitions for their studies and research on cross-border issues or Canada's role in the world.

This year we celebrate our Foreign Language and Area Studies Fellows, our Killam Fellows, graduates who have received academic appointments, students who have participated in conferences, and students who have taken leadership positions for Canadian conferences and tours. We also celebrate our Affiliated Faculty who have taken students to Canada as part of their course studies.

Please join us in congratulating the many achievements in Canadian Studies at the University of Washington!

The Fifth Annual Canadian Studies Symposium, 29 March 2010. Symposium co-chairs Joyce LeCompte-Mastenbrook and Barbara Bennett (front) with student presenters. From left, Teresa Mongillo, Brian Schefke, Morna McEachern, Quentin Red Eagle Smith, and Rob Williams, 2009-2010 Canada-US Fulbright Visiting Chair, who acted as symposium discussant.

Canadian Studies Center Annual Awards Reception 2009–2010 Academic Year

Government of Canada Grants

Jenn Adrien and Chris Bajuk, Global Business Center, Foster School of Business, “MBA Canada Study Tour to Toronto.”

Kathryn Bunn-Marcuse, Art History, Faculty Research Grant, Government of Canada, “Fort Rupert–Kwakiutl First Nations.”

Charles Emlet, Social Work, UW Tacoma, Faculty Research Grant, Government of Canada, “A Profile of Older Adults with HIV/AIDS in Toronto, Ontario.”

Anne Goodchild and Matt Klein, Civil and Environmental Engineering, Student Mobility Grant, “Transportation and Canada-U.S. Border Operations Study Tour.”

Lucy Jarosz, Geography, Faculty Research Grant, Government of Canada, “How Local Food Systems Address Hunger: Comparisons from North America.”

Siôn Romaine, UW Libraries, Canadian Studies Library Support Grant, Government of Canada.

Graduate Student Achievements

SUMMER 2010 FOREIGN LANGUAGE AND AREA STUDIES FELLOWS

Charles Bloomfield, Communication, Sencoten

Julia Day, Ethnomusicology, French

Rachel Hanisch, Epidemiology, French

Jennifer Leider, Public Affairs, French

Bree McConnell, Ethnomusicology, French

Mark Wetzler, Spanish, French

ACADEMIC YEAR 2010–11 FOREIGN LANGUAGE AND AREA STUDIES FELLOWS

Melanie Beckwith, Law, French

Julia Day, Ethnomusicology, French

Christopher Lizotte, Geography, French

Bree McConnell, Ethnomusicology, French

ACADEMIC YEAR 2009–10 FOREIGN LANGUAGE AND AREA STUDIES FELLOWS

Melanie Beckwith, Law School, French

Rachel Feller, Law, French

Joyce LeCompte-Mastenbrook, Anthropology, Musqueam-Salish

Jennifer Leider, Public Affairs, French,

Erin Maloney, Ethnomusicology, French

GRADUATES

Jeanette Bushnell, Doctorate, Women Studies, Dissertation title: 'I Can Think of a Lot of Stories: Shared Knowledges, Indigenous Methodology and Purposeful Conversations with Sixteen Native Women, Chair, David Allen, degree awarded, Fall 2009.

Li Leung, Master's, Statistical Analysis of Commercial Vehicle Border Crossing Times and Volumes: Case Study of the Pacific Highway Port-of-Entry Free And Secure Trade Lane, Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering, Transportation Engineering, Advisor, Anne Goodchild, degree awarded, August 2009.

Morna E. McEachern, Social Work, Is Knowledge Power?: A Textual, Historical and Practical Study of 'Sex Ed' Policy and 'Teen Pregnancy' in Canada and the USA, Chair, Susan Kemp, Social Work, degree awarded May 2010.

GRANTS, AWARDS, & DISTINCTIONS

Morna E. McEachern, Social Work, First Runner-Up, Enders Graduate Student Fellowship, Association for Canadian Studies in the United States, 2009–2010.

CONFERENCE CHAIRS

Karen Capuder, Anthropology, Chair, 8th Annual Symposium of Native American Graduate Students, University of Washington, 24 April 2010.

Ann Huang and Debbie Tran, MBA Program, Co-Chairs, 2009–10 MBA Study Canada Tour, Vancouver, British Columbia; faculty representative, Greg Shelton, Global Trade, Transportation and Logistics Studies, January 2010.

ANNUAL CANADIAN STUDIES SYMPOSIUM, 29 MARCH 2010

Co-chairs: Barbara Bennett and Joyce LeCompte-Mastenbrook

Barbara Lyon Bennett, Marine Affairs, “Minimizing Private Vessel Interactions with Endangered Southern Resident Killer Whales in the Salish Sea: A Study in Stakeholder Engagement.”

Joyce LeCompte-Mastenbrook, Anthropology, “Ways of Knowing Nature at the Boundary: A Comparative Analysis on Colonial and Coast Salish Mountain Goat Narratives.”

Teresa Mongillo, Aquatic and Fishery Science, “Estimated PCB and PBDE Accumulation in Southern Resident Killer Whales: An Individual-based Modeling Approach.”

Quentin Red Eagle Smith and Morna McEachern, Social Work, “Social Work in the lands around the Salish Sea: How does the Canada/US border affect indigenous and migrant peoples’ social service participation?”

Brian Schefke, History, “The Banksian Empire and its Legacy in North America, 1743–1820.”

SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS FOR CONFERENCE PAPER PRESENTATIONS

Lisa Connell, French, PhD candidate, “The Language of (Self) Discovery in Gabrielle Roy’s La Détresse et l’enchantement,” Women in French Studies Conference, Long Island, New York, 10–12 June 2010.

David Pettinicchio, PhD candidate, Sociology, “Ethnic Nationalism and Flight: Explaining Anglophone Out-Migration from Québec, 1971–1981,” American Sociological Association Annual Meeting, San Francisco, 9 August 2009.

Morna McEachern, PhD candidate, “Social Work and the 49th Parallel: How Does the Canada/US Border Affect Indigenous and Migrant Peoples?” with Stan de Mello and Quinton Red Eagle Smith, 20th Biennial Conference, Association of Canadian Studies in the United States, San Diego, California, 18–22 November 2009.

Quinton Red Eagle Smith, PhD candidate, “Social Work and the 49th Parallel: How Does the Canada/US Border Affect Indigenous and Migrant Peoples?” with Stan de Mello and Morna McEachern, 20th Biennial Conference, Association of Canadian Studies in the United States, San Diego, California, 18–22 November 2009.

Killam Fellows

2010-11 FELLOWS

Ivy Gooch, Business Administration
L'Université de Montréal, Fall Quarter 2010

Gregory Johnsen, Economics and International Studies
McGill University, Fall Quarter 2010

2009-10 FELLOWS

Rozanna Fang, Senior, French
McGill University, Fall Quarter 2009

Adam Tanga, Junior, Political Science
University of Ottawa, Fall Quarter 2009

Morna McEachern (fourth from left) successfully defended her dissertation, Is Knowledge Power?: A Textual, Historical and Practical Study of 'Sex Ed' Policy and 'Teen Pregnancy' in Canada and the United States in May. From left to right: Nancy Beadie, College of Education, Leadership and Policy; Amelia Gay, Social Work; Susan Kemp, Social Work; Morna McEachern, Social Work; Michael Prince, University of Victoria; and Noah Seixas, Public Health

Consulate General of Canada / Seattle
Consulat Général du Canada / Seattle

The Canadian Studies Center would like to thank the Consulate General of Canada, Seattle, for hosting this year's Student Recognition Reception.

Canadian Studies Center

Henry M. Jackson School of International Studies
University of Washington
Box 353650
Seattle, Washington 98195-3650

canada@uw.edu
<http://jsis.washington.edu/canada>