Highlight and Revisit

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Quote Highlighted (record words from text)</th>
<th>New or deeper thinking (Question, inference, connection)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Literature Circle Evaluation

Name ______________________________ Date of Discussion ___________________

Novel ________________________________________________________________

What things did your group do well today? What things are going well in your discussions?
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

What new conclusions have you drawn about your novel due to your discussion? What new conclusions have you drawn about your historical event based upon your research and what your have read in your novel?
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

What things does your group still need to work on improving? What can you do to support that improvement?
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________