Invitation & Welcome!

On behalf of the organizing committee, we warmly invite you to participate in the 3rd Annual Canadian Studies Affiliated Graduate Student Symposium, which will be held from April 3 – 4, 2008, at the Bryon & Alice Lockwood Forest Club Room, College of Forest Resources, University of Washington, Seattle.

Under the theme of “Canada’s Role in the World”, this year’s Symposium consists of two sessions. Keynote Session will feature two world-renowned scholars: Prof. Don Alper, Director of Center for Canadian-American Studies and Border Policy Research Institute, Western Washington University, and Prof. Patrick James, Director of Center for International Studies, University of Southern California. Student Session will feature eight researchers from the University of Washington and the University of British Columbia. They will discuss a variety of topics concerning the relevance of Canada and the rest of world, from perspectives of health, history, linguistics, policy, transportation, and forestry.

As a tradition, this Symposium offers not only a learning experience, but also a great opportunity for wine-tasting and networking! At dinner on April 3rd, we hope you will enjoy chatting with our speakers and guests, while tasting some Canadian wine and Italian-style buffet! We will also provide breakfast and lunch on April 4th. All these meals are complimentary to all attendants, but early registration is strongly recommended, please see “Registration” in the attached agenda for details.

Last but not least, we wish to thank Ms. Nadine Fabbi, Associate Director of the Canadian Studies Center of Jackson School of International Studies (UW) for her generous support and advising. Acknowledgement is also due to the Canadian Consulate General (Seattle), the College of Forest Resources (UW), and all other individuals and institutes who have kindly offered their time and assistance to make this event happen.

We look forward to seeing you at the Symposium, which we promise to be a VERY rewarding and stimulating event!!
