The outreach centers of the Henry M. Jackson School of International Studies invite you to attend the annual Summer Seminar for educators, June 27-28, 2006. This year's seminar, Open a Book, Open Your World: Exploring International Literature will bring together scholars, authors and master teachers to examine international literature and the ways it can be used to teach about our world. This two-day seminar is designed for middle school, high school, and community college educators in all subject areas. Please join us!

Registration deadline: June 21, 2006

Registration Fee: $80, includes parking vouchers, coffee/tea, morning pastries, lunch and sixteen WA State clock hours. (You must attend the entire seminar to receive clock hours.) Please make checks payable to the "University of Washington." Special travel stipends are available for teachers coming from 75 miles away or more.

Registration validation: Registration can only be accepted by mail and must include payment in full.

Mail forms to: East Asia Center, University of Washington, Box 353650, Seattle, WA 98195. Questions or inquiries, please call 206-543-6938 or contact barnesk@u.washington.edu. You will receive a confirmation packet with a receipt, map, driving and parking directions, and program details.

Please note that registration fees are nonrefundable and we cannot except payment by credit card
