

CANADIAN STUDIES CENTER NEWS

DECEMBER 2019

CENTER NEWS

University of the Arctic visit to UW

In mid-November University of the Arctic (UArctic) President Lars Kullerud and Vice President Outi Snellman visited UW in an effort to strength collaborations between the UW and UArctic. MORE

New exchange to l'Université Laval

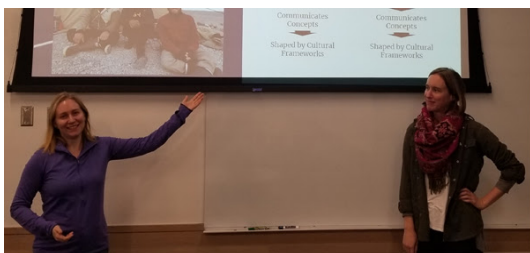

As a result of visits to l'Université Laval by Rich Watts, faculty director, Canadian Studies Center, and Hedwige Meyer, affiliated faculty, UW students can now participate in a direct exchange to Laval for French study. MORE

Hunting the Northern Character

Tony Penikett, former premier of the Yukon Territory, presented on the thesis and background of his book, Hunting the Northern Character, arguing that a new consciousness is developing in the circumpolar region. MORE

STUDENT NEWS

FLAS Fellows, Inuktitut, present at Inuit Studies Conference

Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) Fellows in Inuktitut and doctoral students Elizabeth Wessells, Archaeology, and Ellen Ahlness, Political Science, presented at the 21st Inuit Studies Conference. MORE

Doctoral candidate presents at ACSUS

Center director, Rich Watts and Ph.D. candidate, Max Showalter, presented at the 25th Biennial Conference of the Association for Canadian Studies in the United States in Montréal. MORE

FACULTY NEWS

ALUMNI NEWS

NEWS FROM CANADIAN STUDIES LIBRARIAN

Living in Place: an Indigenous student's perspective abroad

Corbett scholar Owen Oliver shares his experiences as an exchange student at the University of British Columbia, and how the school creates a welcoming space for Indigenous students. MORE

Future of Alberta tar sands

Nives Dolšak and Aseem Prakash draw parallels between U.S. coal bankruptcies and Alberta oil sands in their recent article in Forbes. MORE

Faculty publications, grants and activities in 2018-19

Almost 60 faculty across campus serve as affiliated faculty of the Center. In the past academic year they published over 20 scholarly articles, raised over $2 million in grant funding, and conducted research pertaining to Canada and the Canada-U.S. relationship. MORE

New book on Canada-U.S. relations by UW alum

Discourse of Reciprocity: The Role of the Press in the U.S.-Canada Alliance, by Dr. Kate Dunsmore, was just released by Rowman and Littlefield Press. It draws on Dunsmore's award-winning dissertation. MORE

UW Libraries receive Government of Québec grant

Canadian Studies librarian, and PI on a Government of Québec University Grant, Siôn Romaine, was just awarded $1,000 for Acquisition of Material on Québec for UW Libraries. MORE

PHOTO ALBUMS

FLAS Fellows at Inuit Studies Conference—October 2019

Tony Penikett visits UW—November 2019

Exchange program manager visits B.C.—November 2019

OPPORTUNITIES

Undergraduate students:

- Corbett British Columbia-Washington International Exchange Program: Scholarship opportunity for undergraduates from UW, UBC, and UVic. Applications due January 31, 2020.
- Killam Fellowships Program: Scholarship opportunity for UW undergraduates to study at one of 19 institutions in Canada. Applications due January 31, 2020.

Graduate students:

- Foreign Language and Area Studies Fellowships: Provide academic year and/or summer fellowships to assist meritorious graduate students to train in French or Indigenous languages in Canada and Canadian studies. Academic year fellows receive $18,000 tuition, $15,000 living stipend; summer fellows receive $5,000 tuition, $2,500 in living expenses. Applications due January 31, 2020.

ALL OPPORTUNITIES >

UW HOME CANADIAN STUDIES CENTER MAKE A GIFT

f

CONTACT US | PRIVACY | TERMS

© 2019 Canadian Studies Center, Henry M. Jackson School of International Studies, University of Washington, Seattle
 Box 353650, Seattle, WA 98195-3650
 Thomson Hall 503 | 206-221-6374 | canada@uw.edu

This email was sent to canada@uw.edu
 Unsubscribe or change your email preferences