~ RESOURCE PACKET FOR EDUCATORS ~

Migration and Multiculturalism in Europe

A Teacher Workshop on the European Union and its Eastern Neighbors
For Middle School, High School, and Community College Educators

Held August 12, 2015 in Thomson Hall 317, Jackson School of International Studies
University of Washington, Seattle

“Right to Stay” – Migrant Protest in France

Purpose Statement for Materials: This packet is designed to be supplemental to the workshop. The resources were compiled by staff at the Ellison Center for Russian, East European and Central Asian Studies and the Center for West European Studies, with input by several of the workshop presenters. The materials are complementary to, but not based on, the presentations given at the workshop on Aug. 12. The packet was written by Tina Gourd, Curriculum and Instruction Consultant, UW Seattle and Bothell.

Packet Organization Disclaimer: The resources in this packet are sorted based on hypothetical learning objectives for organizational purposes only. Users should feel free to create new learning objectives and select the most relevant resources for their own purposes. However, hopefully this organization scheme provides an idea of (a) what is available and (b) how the resources could be used.

Notes on Standards: Two sets of standards have been linked to each of the six learning objectives. The WA Social Studies Essential Academic Learning Requirements and the accompanying Grade Level Requirements are the social studies standards for WA State. The College, Career, & Civic Life C3 Framework for Social Studies State Standards are the standards published by the National Council for the Social Studies.

The standards provided have been selected for relevance, but are not exclusive: many other standards would be fulfilled through work with these resources and learning objectives.

Cross-objective standards are listed at the beginning of the packet, and content-specific standards can be found after each learning objective.

  - Description: “CFR is an independent, nonpartisan membership organization, think tank, and publisher.” This is a specific publication, titled, “Europe's Migration Crisis.”
  - What’s Available: Potentially useful maps and charts. While clearly not a government publication and covering a wide-range of components of the crisis (a useful overview), the perspective is definitely Eurocentric, with subtitles such as, “Where do these migrants and refugees come from?”

- Website: European Commission – Priority Migration: http://ec.europa.eu/priorities/migration/index_en.htm

  - What’s Available: Materials to support the perspective of “security crisis.”

  - Description: Part of the website for the European Commission Department (Directorates-General) called Migration and Home Affairs. “We manage policies that aim at ensuring that all activities necessary and beneficial to the economic, cultural and social growth of the EU may develop in a stable, lawful and secure environment. More specifically, we work to build an open and safer Europe.”
  - What’s Available: Government perspective. An EMN glossary of terms, including the key words in different EU languages.

- Website: Migration Policy Institute – Europe: http://www.migrationpolicy.org/programs/mpi-europe

  - Description: HRW is “a nonprofit, nongovernmental human rights organization.”
  - What’s Available: Series of articles on different aspects of the crisis, from the perspective of “humanitarian crisis.” In fact, the authors specifically call out the European Commission for being focused on security and keeping people away, rather than focusing on the push factors and human rights violations.

- What's Available: Maybe more than you think! Scroll down, as the website is organized a little strangely (a bit like a blog).

- Website: Amnesty International – S.O.S. Europe: http://www.sos-europe-amnesty.eu/about/
  - Description: “S.O.S. Europe is Amnesty International’s campaign for the human rights of migrants, refugees and asylum-seekers in Europe and at its borders.”

- Podcast: Ukraine Refugee Crisis – podcast http://seansrussiablog.org/2015/06/05/ukraines-refugee-crisis/
  - What’s Available: This podcast is about internal displacement issues in the Ukraine, but many of the same concerns arise (Should the response prioritize humanitarian issues or security issues?).

  - What’s Available: Six videos on six different “entry points” into Europe, providing mostly the humanitarian perspective, but containing some perspectives on security as well.

  - What’s Available: Brief snapshots (images, statistics, statements) of the sufferings of Syrian refugee children.
