

INDIGENOUS SPEAKER SERIES

Dialogues about Indigenous people's cultural and traditional lived experiences

SESSION 22: Featured speaker Pah-Tu Pitt

Re-localizing Native Leadership in Environmental Narratives and Economy

Pah-tu Pitt (Warm Springs/Wasco) holds Environmental Graduate and undergraduate degrees. She believes strongly in grassroots climate resiliency efforts, and organizes within the community and in solidarity. Her strategies include an emphasis on food sovereignty, relationship to place, understanding of ecosystems, re-localizing trade, centering community, and creating art. Through Native Kut, she produces art, consults, and runs an Airbnb, with a Native arts theme.
