INDIGENOUS SPEAKER SERIES

Dialogues about Indigenous people's cultural and traditional lived experiences

SESSION 25: Featured speakers

Mark Clytus, Cultural Engineering (Concepts) and its Influence on STEA
Solo Greene, Identity: Who We Are.

Mark Clytus is married to a beautiful Dine' woman with four kids, and is a PhD student of American Indian Studies, with an emphasis in Natural Resource Management and Policy, at the University of Arizona. He has a professional background with 15 years in the engineering field, including over six years of experience working as a structural design engineer with The Boeing Company. He has also workeded with Navajo tribal programs to implement various program goals and objectives.

Solo Greene (Nez Perce) is an Education Specialist for Nez Perce Tribe and a motivational speaker. He loves coaching, teaching and working with people to better themselves mentally, physically, emotionally, socially and spiritually. He emphasizes understanding the importance of being who we are and our connection and responsibility to the land and the earth, thinking not only about wellness and balance for oneself, but also for one's children and future generations.
