

Maryam AlHammadi

mra393@nyu.edu    +971503730698    US Phone: +1(206)8237715

EDUCATION

M.A. Candidate in International Studies and Fulbright Scholar (2022-2024)

- Selected for competitive Fulbright Scholarship by the U.S. State Department
- Coursework oriented on international relations, sustainability, and Middle Eastern studies
- Engaged in cultural exchange element of the Fulbright program, sharing and representing Emirati culture abroad

B.A. Political Science, New York University Abu Dhabi

- Capstone focused on IRENA
- Concentrated studies in Sustainability related policy themes, including Climate Change and Renewable Energy Law and Policy under supervision of Professor Shakeel Kazmi
- Student participant in the IRENA General Assembly, and volunteer in Abu Dhabi's Global Energy Forum, managed by the Atlantic Council, as part of Abu Dhabi Sustainability Week
- Winner of SILA competition for Green School Initiatives

Science Track, International School of Chouefat, Al Ain (2014)

- Certificated IDEA Innovation Competitor in Sustainability-oriented water purification project
- Participation in delivery of Multidisciplinary Biology Workshop at UAE University under supervision of Ms. Zohemy Ruiz-Portillo
- Concentrated shadow-teaching in English under supervision of Ms Sarah Kelly

EXPERIENCE

Analyst at Axis (YCombinator W22) (Jan 2022 – Aug 2022)

- Collecting and inputting sector-specific data on energy, health, finance, technology, and financial service entities
- Delivering support for the creation of content pertaining to government entities and their relationships to each other
- Curating, editing, and inputting relevant news into a database to create a daily events feed
- Focusing on Middle Eastern countries, in addition to Singapore in final week

Middle East Regional Manager, CoronaNet Research Project (May 2020 – Jan 2022) (Research Assistantship)

- Overseeing collection and analysis of country and region-specific data, including provision of training
- Delivering support for state and provincial information requests pertaining to data access, manipulation, and the design of policy instruments
- Managing a staff of twenty, including the training of new interns, overlooking overviews, and implementing a strategic plan of action through capacity-building workshops
  - Implementing the timely development of publications related to policies at a regional and national level
- Policy trend analysis in Middle Eastern countries

Country Manager of Canada, CoronaNet Research Project (March 2021 – Jan 2022)

- Similar to duties required in the Regional Manager of the Middle East role
- Managing a staff of six, including the training of new interns, and overseeing policy data entry plan of individual interns

SKILLS

Languages: Arabic (Native), English (Native Fluency), Italian (Beginner Proficiency)

Computational: STATA, R (limited proficiency)

CONFERENCES

UAE Delegate to UNESCO-managed summer conference in Istanbul (July 2022)

→ One of two candidates sent by the UAE Ministry of Culture and Youth to represent Emirati Youth at Project Aladdin summer program at Bahcesehir University in Istanbul, Turkey, under the patronage of UNESCO

→ Graduated as UNESCO-certified Youth Ambassador for Peace and Intercultural Dialogue

UAE Delegate to the COP23 United Nations Climate Change Conference (2017)

INTERNATIONAL STUDY ABROAD EXPERIENCE

Full semester in Florence, Italy (Spring 2017), January Term in New York City, USA (January 2016), Class trip to Sri Lanka (January, 2017)

References available upon request