

SUMMER 2016

---

A + B Term

JSIS C 320/ANTH 322

Comparative Study of Death (5 credits)

MW 1:10-3:20

JSIS C 321/ANTH 321

Anthropology of Religion

TTh 1:30-3:20

Anthropological approaches to religious experience and belief with emphasis on conceptual issues such as ritual, symbolism, identity, ecstatic experience, and revitalization movements in the context of globalization. Also addresses the diversity of religious expression in American culture and how that compares with other societies.

CLAS 430

Greek and Roman Mythology (3 credits)

MWF 10:50-11:50

ENGL 310

Bible as Literature (5 credits)

MTWTh 8:30-9:30

Griffith

---

A Term

JSIS C 201

Introduction to World Religions: Western Traditions (5 credits)

MTWThF 9:40-11:50

Tite

HSTCMP 209

History of Christianity (5 credits)

MTWThF 9:10-11:20

Felak

NEAR E 201

Introduction to the Ancient Near East (5 credits)

MTW 9:10-12:20

Martin

---

B Term

JSIS C 240/NEAR E 202

Introduction to Hebrew Bible (5 credits)

M 9:40-11:40

Martin

JSIS A 315/ANTH 315

Southeast Asian Civilization: Buddhist and Vietnamese (5 credits)

MTWTh 9:40-12:20

Lowe

Civilizations of Theravada Buddhist societies in Burma, Thailand, Cambodia, and Laos and in Vietnamese societies of Southeast Asia. Culture of tribal peoples who live on peripheries of these societies. Cultural transformations consequent upon the war in Indochina and resettlement of Indochinese refugees in United States. Offered: jointly with JSIS A 315.

CLAS 324

Greek and Roman Athletics (5 credits)

MTWThF 1:10-3:20

Stroup

ENGL 210

English Literature from 400-to 1600

MTWTh 9:40-11:00

Remley

NEAR E 202

Introduction to the Hebrew Bible/Old Testament (5 credits)

MTW 9:10-12:20

Martin

---