

TEMPLE BETH AM'S 2017 UNIVERSITY LECTURE SERIES

with Professor Kathie Friedman

Immigrants and Refugees: We Were Strangers, Too

All lectures held from 7:00 - 8:30 PM at Temple Beth Am
2632 NE 80th St., Seattle 98115

MARCH 15

We Haven't Forgotten Our History: Jewish People Were Once Refugees, Too

MARCH 22

Sorry to Disturb You, But There is a War in My Country: The Global Refugee Crisis

MARCH 29

What Will You Do When They Start To Round Us Up: Undocumented Americans and Their Families

$40 for the series / $15 per lecture, free for students with ID

Become a program patron for $100

Open to everyone in the community

templebetham.org

Prof. Kathie Friedman is an associate professor of international studies at the Henry M. Jackson School of International Studies at UW, Seattle. She is also an adjunct associate professor in the departments of Sociology and Gender, Women, and Sexuality Studies and former Chair of the UW Jewish Studies Program. Her research is in the area of forced migrations, particularly the social and political integration of refugees and their children after resettlement. She is the author of Memories of Migration: Gender, Ethnicity, and Work in the Lives of Jewish and Italian Women in New York, 1879-1924.