

CURRICULUM VITAE

Hayim Katsman
Jackson School of International Studies
University of Washington
katsmanh@uw.edu

EDUCATION:

- PhD., 2021 (expected) – University of Washington, Jackson School of International Studies.
Dissertation Topic: “New Trends in Religious-nationalist politics in Israel/Palestine”
Ph.D. Committee: Prof. Jim Wellman (chair), Prof. Joel Migdal, Prof. Chrisitan Novetzke.
- M.A., 2017 – Ben-Gurion University, Department of Politics and Government.
Thesis subject: “Political Extremism in Israel: The case of Rabbi Yitzchak Ginzburg and Religious-Zionism.” Advisors: Prof. Neve Gordon & Prof. Dani Filc.
- B.A., 2014 – The Open University of Israel, Philosophy and Political Science.

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY:

2018, Research Assistant for Prof. Gill Frank, Center for the Study of Religion, Princeton University.

2017-2018, Research assistant for Prof. Mark LeVine (UC Irvine), Parallel States Project.

2017-2018, Hebrew instructor, Kadima Reconstructionist Community.

2014-2017, Teaching Assistant, Ben-Gurion University.

Courses Taught:

‘Introduction to Political Philosophy’

‘The Political Regime in Israel’

‘Introduction to International Relations’

2015-2017, deputy-chairman, Junior Academic Staff Association in Ben-Gurion University.

2013-2017, car mechanic, ‘Greasily Different Mechanics’

PEER REVIEWED PUBLICATIONS

Accepted:

Hayim Katsman & Guy Ben-Porat, Israel: Religion and Political Parties. In Routledge Handbook of Religion and Political Parties, Ed. Jeff Haynes. (Routledge, 2019, Forthcoming).

Hayim Katsman, Reactions Towards Jewish Radicalism: Rabbi Yitzchak Ginzburg and Religious Zionism. In Jewish Radicalisms, Ed. Frank Jacob & Sebastian Kunze (Berlin: De Gruyter, 2019, Forthcoming).

Articles under review:

“Radicalism and violence in Religious-Zionist thought? The Case of Rabbi Yitzchak Ginzburg”

AWARDS AND FELLOWSHIPS

2019, Stroum Center for Jewish Studies Opportunity Grant, University of Washington.

2018-2019, FLAS fellowship.

2018-2019, Stroum Center for Jewish Studies Graduate fellowship, University of Washington.

2017-2018, Israel Studies Benaroya doctoral fellowship, University of Washington.

2014-2017, Graduate Excellence Scholarship – Department of Politics and Government, Ben-Gurion University.

2009, 2014 – Dean’s list, The Open University of Israel.

PRESENTATION OF PAPERS AT CONFERENCES

12/2018, “Radicalism and violence in Religious-Zionist thought” Annual Meeting of The American Association for Jewish Studies, Boston, MA.

6/2018, “Radicalism and violence in Religious-Zionist thought” Annual Meeting of The Association for Israel Studies, UC Berkley, CA.

12/2016, “Rabbi Yitzchak Ginzburg and the Construction of ‘Extremism’” Annual Graduate Conference in Political Science, International Relations and Public Policy, Hebrew University, Jerusalem.

05/2016, “Yesha is (up to) here: Rabbi Yitzchak Ginzburg and Religious-Zionism”, The Interdisciplinary Conference for Graduate Students, Department of Sociology and Anthropology, Tel-Aviv University.

PROFESSIONAL WORKSHOPS

01/2019, ‘Teaching with Impact,’ The Israel Institute.

VOLUNTEER ACTIVITIES

2018, Co-Coordinator of Israel/Palestine research group at the University of Washington.

2015, Board member, Junior Academic Staff Association.

2013-2015, Board member, The Center for Young Adults, Eshkol regional-council.

2014-2015, Audit committee member, Kibbutz Holit.

2013-2015, Community advancement committee, Kibbutz Holit.

MILITARY SERVICE

2009-2012, team-commander, Combat Intelligence Collection Corps, IDF.

2010, combat-medics course.

LANGUAGES

English: Native

Hebrew: Native

Arabic: Advanced.

Talmudic-Aramaic: Intermediate.