

Before the Catastrophe:

New Revelations in Russian, Ottoman, & Armenian Archives, 1909-1914

GARABET K MOUMDJIAN holds a Ph.D. from UCLA in History, where his dissertation explored Armenian and Young Turk Relations in the period 1895-1909. He is currently preparing a monograph on Armenian-Turkish relations for the University of Utah Press. His publications include two academic books, seven book chapters, and about twenty articles in academic journals and periodicals. Since 2002, Dr. Moumdjian has been employed by federal government agencies as a security analyst, consultant, and linguist.

April 21, 2014 | 3:00-4:30 p.m.
Thomson Hall, Room 317