Chair: Carol J. Williams, former Moscow correspondent for The Los Angeles Times and the Associated Press

Film description: Fighting in eastern Ukraine broke out in early 2014. Since that summer, thousands of young Russians, driven by television propaganda and a thirst for adventure, began to pour into the Donbas region of eastern Ukraine. Among these volunteers were Oleg and Max. Oleg became a battalion commander and Max remained an ordinary soldier. While they prepare to fight, they discuss their motivations and share their own perspective on the conflict. Then, on the night of June 3, 2015, a battle leaves their battalion shattered, and each of them is facing the consequences of their choices.
