NIEA

NORTHWEST INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION

CO-SPONSOR

CENTER FOR GLOBAL STUDIES
UNIVERSITY of WASHINGTON
Henry M. Jackson School of International Studies

FALL WORKSHOP 2018

HIGHLINE COLLEGE OCTOBER 26 8:00AM – 3:00PM

GLOBAL POPULISM:
AT HOME AND ABROAD

"In politics, populism refers to a range of approaches that emphasizes the role of "the people" and often juxtaposes this group against the elite."

REGISTRATION

COST:$50.00
WWW.NIEAWA.ORG

WHY ATTEND?

- Deepen your understanding of the historical and comparative perspectives on the recent rise of populism
- Learn innovative approaches to integrate these themes in your curriculum and on campus
- Learn about NIEA's mini-grant, visiting scholar and Community College Master Teaching Institute programs
- Explore studying abroad, related experiences, and best practices

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Dr. Robert Pekkanen
Professor
University of Washington
Jackson School for International Studies

Dr. Pekkanen's research includes electoral systems, political parties and civil society. He was a co-principal investigator on a project exploring how electoral systems shape politics.

MORE INFORMATION

Heather Lukashin: hlukashin@olympic.edu
Doug Raiford: draiford@cascadia.edu