

CENTER FOR GLOBAL STUDIES

FEATURED COURSES

WINTER 2020

PORT 365/JSIS A 365: Mapping Luso-Brazilian Cultures

Explore the different cultural representations of Brazil and other Portuguese-speaking countries through music, including genres such as MPB, tropicália, maracatu, and funk, among others.

T, Th | 1:30 PM- 3:20 PM
5 credits

JSIS 495 F: Towards a True Democracy in the EU?

This task force aims to draft proposals for the European Commission as the central governing body for the European Union, focusing on how the role of these parties can be strengthened.

T, Th | 10:30 AM - 12:20 PM
5 credits

HONORS 391B: Climate Change: an Interdisciplinary Perspective

Consider the impacts of climate change to nations in the Arctic states, and how literature, music, and art impact science and activism.

T, Th | 12:30 PM- 2:20 PM
5 credits

PORT 105: Portuguese for Spanish Speakers

If you speak Spanish, then you can already understand more than 50% of Portuguese texts without any previous knowledge! This class will focus on similarities and differences of Spanish and Portuguese.

M-F | 11:30 AM - 12:20 PM
6 credits

