

The Jackson School of International Studies, Ph.D. Program

CREDITS WAIVER PETITION

As a doctoral student in the JSIS Ph.D. Program, you can get 28 credits waived as part of your 100+ credits Ph.D. coursework. On this policy see especially the section on “Required Minimum Course Distribution by Credits,” in the Ph.D. Program Student Handbook, available via the COMMONS and also online at <http://jsis.washington.edu/phd/>.

The credits waiver is given effect formally through The Graduate School at UW. To expedite the process and to ensure that we meet the Graduate School requirements in a timely manner, you need to fill out and return the following petition by or before October 15 of the first year of your doctoral program of study in the Jackson School.

You are advised that the Ph.D. Program requires an electronic copy of this petition, which should be mailed to jsisphd@uw.edu. Please also be advised that where your name is required typing in your name represents your signature.
