

2017 Fulbright Specialist Program to Israel

The Fulbright Specialist Program provides support for short (2-6 week) visits by US academics or senior professionals in the following fields:

- Agriculture
- American/US studies
- Anthropology
- Archaeology
- Biology education
- Business administration
- Chemistry education
- Communications & journalism
- Computer science and IT
- Economics
- Education
- Engineering education
- Environmental science
- Law
- Library science
- Math education
- Peace and conflict resolution studies
- Physics education
- Political science
- Public administration
- Public/global health
- Sociology
- Social work
- Urban planning

Fulbright Specialist projects may include activities such as lecturing to undergraduate or graduate students; professional consultations and advising; participation in workshops, symposia or conferences; and development and/or evaluation of academic curricula or educational materials. Projects are encouraged that contribute to the creation of new academic programs or fields of study in Israel. The program does not fund personal and clinical medical research.

Grant Benefits:

The program provides the specialist with round trip airfare (tourist class) and a $200 day honorarium. In-country hospitality (lodgings, meals, in-country transportation) is provided by the Israeli host institution/s, according to terms agreed in direct contacts between the Specialist and the institution/s concerned.

Application Procedures:

US specialists interested in visiting Israel must submit their application to the Council for International Exchange of Scholars (CIES). Application instructions and forms may be found on the CIES website <http://www.cies.org/program/fulbright-specialist-program>

Israeli institutions interested in hosting a Fulbright Specialist must submit a request to host the visit to the United States-Israel Educational Foundation. Instructions and forms may be obtained by contacting:

Imri Grinberg, Program manager

Tel: 5172131 ext 203, Email: ImriG@fulbright.org

Tally Barkay, Program coordinator

Tel: 5172131 ext 205, Email: Tbarkay@fulbright.org.il

There is no deadline, the admission is rolling based

We advise to submit at least 90 days prior to the project's starting date

Two-Year US Post-Doctoral Research Fellows To Israel

The United States-Israel Educational Foundation (USIEF) plans to offer eight fellowships in all academic disciplines to American post-doctoral researchers at Israeli universities during the course of academic years 2018/2019-2020.

Grant Benefits:

Program grants total $40,000, $20,000 per academic year. In addition, the host institution will also provide a standard post-doctoral grant.

Prospective applicants must secure an invitation letter from an accredited Israeli institution of higher education.

Individuals who have already begun research activities in Israel prior to the application date are not eligible.

Application Procedures:

The Council for International Exchange of Scholars (CIES) administers the Senior Scholar Program for the Department of State. Details on the program and on submission of applications may be found on the CIES website.

Those interested may also contact the CIES staff member responsible for the Middle East region for further information:

Lisa Hendricks, Regional Lead
telephone: 202-686-6239
email: LHendricks@iie.org.

Applications must be submitted to the Council for International Exchange of Scholars (CIES) by August 1st, 2017.

2018 Fulbright US Senior Scholar Fellowships to Israel

The United States-Israel Educational Foundation (USIEF) plans to award up to eight grants to members of academic staff, to senior professionals, or to accomplished artists or writers for visits to Israeli institutions of higher education to be carried out during the 2018/2019 academic year.

The visiting fellows' programs of work may include research, lecturing, or a combination of lecturing and research.

The program grants will support visits of 4 months. This program is open to all fields of study.

Prospective applicants must secure an invitation letter from an accredited Israeli institution of higher education.

Grant Benefits:

Monthly allowance:

- $4,500/month for unaccompanied grantees
- $5,000/month for grantees accompanied by one dependent
- $5,500/month for grantees accompanied by two dependents
- $6,000/month for grantees accompanied by three or more dependents
- limited health insurance for the grantee only
- orientation meetings in the United States (attendance compulsory) and in Israel, and other grantee events during the course of the year

Application Procedures:

The Senior Scholar Program is administered for the Department of State by the Council for International Exchange of Scholars (CIES). Details on the program and on submission of applications may be found on the CIES website.

Those interested may also contact the CIES staff member responsible for the Middle East region for further information:

Lisa Hendricks, Regional Lead
telephone: 202-686-6239
email: LHendricks@iie.org

Applications must be submitted to the Council for International Exchange of Scholars (CIES) by August 1st, 2017.