

THE AMERICAN UNIVERSITY IN CAIRO

Middle East Studies Center

MIDDLE EAST SUMMER SCHOOL 2017

Egyptian History, Government and International Relations of the Middle East (with Arabic)

27-31 August 2017
New Cairo, Egypt

The Middle East Studies Center at AUC (a top 10 university in Africa and the Middle East) invites applications for a one-week residential summer school covering Egyptian history (nineteenth and twentieth centuries), government, and international relations of the Middle East.

The program includes:

- Transport from/to Cairo International Airport
- Bus tour of Cairo and AUC campus guide on day 1
- Refreshments
- An overview of nineteenth and twentieth century Egyptian history, government and international relations of the Middle East
- A daily Arabic learning program at the basic or intermediate level (to be determined on day 1)
- An opportunity to study in Egypt at the Middle East Studies Center and in the Department for Arabic Language Instruction (ALI) at AUC New Cairo campus
- On-campus accommodation

Contact hours (Not for credit basis):

- 8 sessions of Basic or Intermediate Modern Standard Arabic (90 mins each)
- 8 sessions of Basic or Intermediate Egyptian Colloquial Arabic (90 mins each)
- 2 lectures (90 mins each)
- 1 seminar on policy issues in the modern Middle East ((90 mins)

Fees:

The summer school fee is $1000

Apply online!

https://docs.google.com/a/aucegypt.edu/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSc7m-swDIFTMlxmDp8MBs_k-kzUvg_Le-jd2RN25DT_fVUPCA/viewform

The application deadline is June 15, 2017

For more details, contact mescsummerprogram@aucegypt.edu